

JACKSON'S HOLE AGAIN

Captain Smith and Two Other White Men Killed by Indians.

SHOT DOWN FROM AMBUSH.

Bannocks Have Secured Their Vengeance For the Killing of Last July—Story of a Scout Who Saw the Bodies of the Murdered Men.

DEWEY, Oct. 7.—A special from Powell gives the following account of the killing of settlers at Jackson's Hole by Indians: A courier and scout of the United States troops, named J. W. Wilson, reached Idaho Falls, about 90 miles north of this place, last evening, bringing news of the killing of Captain Smith and two comrades by Indians in the lower part of Jackson's Hole on Thursday morning.

The Indians had sworn vengeance against Smith, as it was he, they believed, who killed one of their tribe and was the cause indirectly of the death of a papoose last July. Smith was wounded himself in this fight, but recovered.

Wilson states that Captain Smith and his two companions were prospecting on the south fork of the Snake river, at the south end of Jackson's Hole, and were ambushed, and he and his two companions were shot dead and their bodies left on the river bank.

Wilson and Constable Manning were scouting in this locality at the time, and both saw the dead bodies of the murdered men. Wilson went at once to Captain Collins' command in Swan Valley and reported the facts, leaving Manning at Camp Granite to return to Jackson's Hole with the troops, who left immediately for the scene of the killing.

Wilson then rode to Idaho Falls with dispatches. E. Adams, a rancher, living three miles from the scene of the killing, and now visiting at Idaho Falls, put Wilson through a searching examination in regard to the killing of Smith and his companions, and says there can be no doubt whatever as to the reliability of Wilson's statement.

Wilson says there are about 60 Indians in Jackson's Hole, and they are Bannocks from the Fort Hall reservation. Captain Collins, with his band, who started for the Hole, will drive out all the Indians found there, but it is almost certain that none will be encountered, as they will anticipate the arrival of troops and head by a circuitous route for the reservation.

Lieutenant Ladd of the Ninth cavalry, and Lieutenant Penn of the First infantry, now stationed at Montpellier, Ida., were much alarmed at the report of the killing. From reports received by them from their troops camped in Star valley it was believed no further trouble would ensue, and the report states that there were no Indians in Jackson's Hole with the exception of a small band under military escort going to another camp in Wyoming to recover a child that was lost last winter. The names of Smith's comrades could not be learned.

Dr. Graham's Damaging Statement. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—Naturally the subject uppermost in Attorney Deuprey's mind was the damaging statement made by Dr. Gilbert F. Graham against Durrant, which was published today. The knowledge that Durrant's classmate had signified his intention of going on the witness stand and testifying that the accused had confessed to him that he had no notes of Dr. Cheney's lecture, nettled the attorney not a little, though he declared that he was confident of breaking Graham down on cross-examination.

St. Joseph Priest Will Be Prosecuted on a Charge of Embezzlement.

St. JOSEPH, Oct. 7.—The grand jury this morning returned three indictments against Father Wagner, the priest, one for rape, another for seducing a girl under 18 years of age and the third for abduction. The grand jury is now investigating charges of embezzlement, preferred against the priest by members of his congregation. The three indictments returned this morning will probably be more prosed, the priest having married the girl Saturday night, and she cannot be compelled to appear against her husband. The priest will likely be prosecuted on the charge of embezzlement, however, as the expert who examined the books of the parish says there is a shortage of $2,000.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 7.—The representatives of the powers have sent a collective note to the Turkish government calling attention to the inadequate measures taken by the police authorities to maintain public tranquility in Constantinople and its suburbs, and demanding the prompt institution of a vigorous inquiry into the recent rioting, bloodshed and wholesale imprisonment of Armenians here. In addition the powers demand the release of all prisoners who are innocent of wrong doing and the cessation of arrests.

The Armenians who are still inside the patriarchate church here, in which they sought refuge after the rioting of Monday last, fired some shots at noon today, and it was feared another outbreak was imminent. A strong force of troops was sent to the spot. A mob filled all the adjacent streets. This action of the militia caused a panic among the inhabitants. The Kurds then entered the workshops along the quays and expelled from them all of the Armenians they could find. Later it is claimed the bodies of four Armenians were found.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 7.—Some excitement has been created by a rumor that Protestant missionaries had conspired to blow up a church containing the miraculous image of the virgin at Guadalupe with dynamite bombs or to set fire to the structure. A section of the city fire department is at Guadalupe near the church. The authorities give the rumor no credence, but it shows how popular feeling has been excited by the threatened Protestant missionaries' crusade against adoration of the virgin, around which many patriotic traditions cluster.
